

NEWS OF THE SUBURBS

FULTON NOTES.

The pulpit of the Fulton Baptist Church will be occupied at both services to-day by the pastor, the Rev. David Hepburn. At the morning service Mr. Hepburn's subject will be "Feeding the Five Thousand." At the evening service the subject of the discourse will be "The Sinful Reasoning with the Almighty."

The Young People's Society of the Fulton Baptist Church will meet to-night at the church, its subject will be "Sacrednes of Praise." The meeting will be led by Miss Lula Tyree.

The Builders' League of the Denny Street Methodist Episcopal Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Robert Fairlamb, on State Street.

Willie, the little son of Councilman Fred H. Garber, who was knocked down and run over Friday afternoon by a wagon in front of his father's store, has gotten over his fright. He was only slightly injured and is able to go about.

The Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, will exhibit his excellent stereopticon views at the Sunday school service this morning. The illustrations will be of the hymn, "I heard the Voice of Jesus saying, Come unto me and rest."

As many boys and girls as can are cordially invited to attend.

The Rev. A. A. Jones, pastor of the Denny Street Methodist Episcopal Church, will occupy his pulpit to-day at both services.

The roll of honor of Louisiana Street County School for the week ending March 18 is as follows:

Miss Marian Angle, teacher—May Donly, Willie Bolan, Laura Whittle, Pearl Sacad, Eva Lucy, Grace Leonard and Myrtle Austin.

The social committee of the Baptist Young People's Union met last night at the residence of Miss Willie Austin, No. 50 Graham Street.

W. T. Davis, the young man whose leg was badly broken several weeks ago while at work operating a large machine at the Richmond Cedar Works, is getting along nicely. He is able to go about with the aid of crutches and expects to visit his family in the country to-day.

Mrs. Harvey Holmes continues extremely ill at her home, 305 Fulton Street.

The roll of honor of Fort Lee School for the week ending March 18:

Louis Angier, Frank Angier, Charles Clarke, Emmett Doggett, Arthur Harris, Josie Plyler, Phlox Smithers, Winona Angier, Elsie Clarke, Fannie Etch and Hazel Meredith.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Society of the Denny Street Methodist Episcopal Church will meet to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the parsonage.

The Parsonage Society of the Denny Street Methodist Episcopal Church will meet to-morrow night at the parsonage.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Fulton Baptist Church will meet to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock in the lecture room of the church.

Lyman, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis, who broke his thigh several weeks ago, is getting along nicely.

The Saturday night prayer-meeting held for young men and boys every Saturday night at the Fulton Baptist Church was well attended last night. At each meeting some one present is selected to conduct the next meeting, and much interest is being manifested in the work.

The Rev. John W. Daugherty, pastor

THE NEW CHINA STORES.

OUR FIRST

Easter Sale
WILL BE ONE TO BE REMEMBERED.

BEAUTIFUL

Easter Souvenirs
WITH EACH
25 Cent Purchase.

$1.89 for Decorated Toilet Sets, ten pieces, all perfect; $2.50 values.

$26.50 for Hayland Dinner Sets, newest decoration and shapes; worth $35.

10c for Large Hand Painted Easter Eggs, worth 1c.

98c for Cut Glass Syrup Jugs, with silver plated tops; worth $1.50.

17c for Cut Glass Salt and Pepper Shakers, with sterling silver tops; worth 2c and 5c.

39c for Toothpick Holder or Match Safe; worth 3c.

$2.98 for Heavy Cut Glass Bowls, newest cutting; worth $4.50 and $5.

$1.19 for Cut Glass Dishes, worth 42c.

39c for Imported China Berry Bowls, worth 5c.

$1.00 a dozen for Saucers to match, worth $0.50 a dozen.

7c for Imitation Cut Glass Bowls, worth 1c.

25c a dozen for Berry Saucers to match bowls, worth 4c a dozen.

5c for Black Steel Bread Pans, worth 8c.

29c for Enamelled Tea Pots, worth 5c.

75c for Enamelled Ham Boilers, worth $1.25.

98c for Hand Painted Jardinières, the $1.50 ones.

10c for 10-quart Dish Pans, special while they last.

10c for Large Easter Chicks, worth 1c.

15c for Feather Ducks that quack, worth 2c.

A large line of Easter Novelties at specially low prices.

BROWNE & CONSTINE,
205 E. Broad Street.

of the Apostolic Church, will occupy his pulpit at both services to-day.

Mr. Norman Jordan is able to be out after a recent illness.

Miss Hattie Bryant, daughter of Superintendent J. M. Bryant of the National Cemetery, left yesterday for Philadelphia to visit her brother Harry.

For the benefit of charity, the Henrico Council, No. 723, Royal Arcanum, will give a big entertainment on April 7 at Nelson's Hall. The exercises will be under the direction of Mrs. Jennie Yeaman and her school, assisted by Miss Patrice Isaacs. Miss Isaacs' voice is considered one of the richest soprano in the city. At this entertainment Mrs. Yeaman and Miss Isaacs will make their first appearance in Fulton. An excellent programme, which comprises many humorous and palatable readings, recitations, solos, etc., will be arranged.

Misses Mayme Jordan and Lillian Duke have arranged a novel entertainment to be presented Tuesday night. The entertainment is called "A Floral Hunt on the Prairie," and will be given over the office of Mr. Arthur C. Neison, No. 60 State Street. The proceeds of the entertainment will be added to the Fulton Baptist Church parsonage fund. An elegant musical programme in addition to the "hunt" has been arranged. A prize will be presented to the successful hunter. Light refreshments will be served.

The Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, will assist the Rev. W. E. Robertson, pastor of Randolph Street Church, in a revival beginning to-morrow night.

Mr. Charles L. A. Doeppen, head machinist of the Millisler Bag Company, is able to be out after a few days' confinement at his home on account of sickness.

Lenten services will be conducted Tuesday and Thursday nights at the Weddell-Memorial Episcopal Chapel by the pastor, the Rev. Guy Christian.

Patrick Henry Council, No. 112, J. U. U. M., will meet to-morrow night at Nelson's Hall.

The pulpit of the Weddell-Memorial Episcopal Chapel will be occupied this morning by the pastor, the Rev. Guy Christian. At the evening service the Rev. W. Meade Clarke, of St. James Episcopal Church, will officiate.

Fleming Hall, No. 6 Louisiana Street, is able to be out after a brief spell of illness.

Mrs. Susan Elise, of Baltimore, Md., who was called here to attend the funeral of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth A. Launders, has returned home.

The Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of the Fulton Baptist Church, will administer the ordinance of baptism to-night after the evening services. Mr. Hepburn baptized a number of candidates last Wednesday night.

Rev. W. E. Robertson, pastor of Randolph Street Baptist Church, will conduct the services at the Fulton Baptist Church Wednesday night. The Rev. David Hepburn, pastor of Fulton Baptist Church, will officiate at the services at Randolph Street Church Wednesday night.

Mrs. Henry Ball, wife of the watchman of the Richmond Cedar Works, is much improved after a long and severe illness.

Captain Charles E. Brown, of the Orleans Street yard, Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, continues to improve. Captain Brown has been detained from his duties for several months on account of rheumatism.

Anthony Manolet, veteran watchman of the Old Dominion Steamship Company's wharf, continues to improve after a severe illness.

A "Tacky Wedding" will be given at Kensey's Hall, Orleans Street, Wednesday night. The affair will be under the management of Misses Florence Welmer and Ruth Griffin and a most pleasant time is anticipated.

Felix, the little son of Mr. Charles Smith, of State Street, is improving.

FAIRMOUNT.

Mrs. W. W. Pendleton has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. E. R. Rohr, at Mansfield, Va.

Little Menie, a girl who has been at the Shadrack Arms Hospital with pneumonia, is convalescing.

Fidelity Y.S. of Fairmount Methodist Church held a meeting at the Home for Incurables Friday night.

Mr. Herbert Newberry has left for Pennsylvania, where she has accepted a position. Mrs. Newberry will follow her husband later.

Mrs. Willie Nickols, who has been quite sick with the grip at her home on Broad Street road, is now much improved. Mrs. Nickols is a sister of Mrs. J. W. Rayney.

Mrs. J. T. Nickols is confined to her bed with a sprained ankle.

Mrs. Leonard Deane and Mrs. Nettie Deane were the guests of Mrs. Kate Putz last week.

Mrs. Sallie Woody, who has been ill with pneumonia at her home on Twenty-first Street, is improving.

Mrs. J. T. Southworth was the guest of Mrs. J. Lomax Mitchell during last week.

Miss Ida Seay, of Caroline county, is visiting Mrs. Gessinghouse on Twenty-second Street.

Mr. John Smith and Miss Edie Smith will leave in a few days for Caroline county to visit their parents.

Miss Anna Elizabeth is visiting her brother at Orleans, Va.

Mr. Henry Heelher is confined to his home with an attack of sore throat.

Misses Mattie Terry, Franey Poynett, Lizzie Pace, and George Pace and Leslie Gregory formed a delightful party which visited the Glass Works last week. Each secured a beautiful souvenir.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dunes have left for Newport News to reside, where Mr. Dunes had secured a position.

Miss Edie Young, of Caroline county, is visiting Mrs. Berry Wright at the pike.

Miss Mary Lawrence last week.

Mrs. Robert Clarke has been called to the bedside of her husband, who is ill at their home in New Kent county.

Mass meeting of the members of East Visitation here last week.

Mass meeting of the members of East End Church will be held to-morrow night in the church to discuss the advisability of the erection of a new church in another locality. It is hoped all members will be present.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held to-morrow evening at 3:30.

Mrs. J. W. Rainey and Mrs. C. H. Clayton visited their sister, Mrs. Willie Nickols, in Henrico county, last week.

A grand entertainment was held at the Baptist Church Friday night for the benefit of the church debt.

Mr. Frank Jones, who has been in Washington several days on business, has paid the church debt.

Mrs. Eugene McDowell is again after being confined to her home several days with the grip.

Mr. Pleasant Pollard had the misfortune to have his hand badly mashed last week. He has gone to his home in Hanover county.

Mr. Jake Frank, who suffered a stroke of paralysis last week, is now somewhat improved.

The Earnest Workers' League of East End Baptist Church held an enthusiastic and well-attended meeting a few evenings ago in the home of Miss Lulu Kelly. Those present were: Misses Mamie Shelton, Ethel Atting, Lily Kelly, Faunie Ford, Edna Ford, Luina Roache, Bertha Graves, Madeline Kelly and Philippa.

Miss Barbara Kahn, of Greenwich county, is the guest of Miss Gretchen Lewis, of Highland Park.

The Margaret Botome Circle of King's Daughters will meet the second Monday in next month at the residence of Mrs. Lynn B. Winslow, on Highland Park.

Rev. D. K. Walther will preach this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Overlook Presbyterian Church, located on Heights.

Miss Margaret Bouton, of Highland Park, celebrated her eleventh birthday yesterday afternoon.

Services will be held at Highland Park Methodist Church this morning and evening, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. B. Askew.

Mr. Arnold, of Tennessee, is the guest of Mrs. Kelly of Fourth Avenue.

Miss Lockett had quite a number of fowls stolen last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Christian Schneider have returned to their residence on Third Avenue, after spending some time in Batavia, N. Y.

There will be preaching at Ascension Church this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

At a full meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of Highland Park Church it was decided to give an Easter entertainment Monday, April 4th, in the lecture room of the church. Quite an interesting programme has been arranged.

Master Willie Sale, who has been confined to the house by sickness for the past several days, is now able to be out.

The roll of honor of Highland Park school ending for the week, Friday, March 11th, is as follows: Miss Elizabeth Quincy, Teacher; Senior A. Jessie Marshall, Pattle Christian, Sonja Raas, Katie Lewis, Ruth Daniels, Intermediate A—Julia Boyd, Atwood Louis, Julian Todd, Alice Clark, Lola Wingfield, Fourth Grade—Edna Bowman, Virginia Fleming, Sixth Grammar Grade—Miss Mary Pemberton, Teacher—Mary Starke, Mildred Clarke, Hettie Ratcliffe, Fourth Grammar Grade—Frannie Gray, Lizzie Bowman.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS.

There will be services at the Methodist Episcopal Church to-day. Preaching by the pastor, Rev. John McCarthy.

The minister of M. E. Church and his wife were very much surprised when a large company called at their home, giving them a good pounding.

It was a complete surprise. A very pleasant evening was spent, Finch being played.

There will be given in Library Hall on the 23rd of March a progressive supper.

The roll of honor of Highland Park school ending for the week, Friday, March 11th, is as follows: Miss Elizabeth Quincy, Teacher; Senior A. Jessie Marshall, Pattle Christian, Sonja Raas, Katie Lewis, Ruth Daniels, Intermediate A—Julia Boyd, Atwood Louis, Julian Todd, Alice Clark, Lola Wingfield, Fourth Grade—Edna Bowman, Virginia Fleming, Sixth Grammar Grade—Miss Mary Pemberton, Teacher—Mary Starke, Mildred Clarke, Hettie Ratcliffe, Fourth Grammar Grade—Frannie Gray, Lizzie Bowman.

GREAT PIANOLA

is a living, breathing wonder, capable of as much expression as a great artist. In execution no one equals it, and the tempos are made to meet the demands of the composition at will. Any one can play a piano with one of them, and after only a few minutes' explanation and trial you are master of it. Let us demonstrate it.

WALTER D.
MOSES & CO.,
103 E. Broad Street.

BARTON HEIGHTS.

Farmer Percy Harris, Willie Boatwright, Charlie Wood, Linwood Mitchell, Ernest Peet, Sheldon, Willie Tyler, Ellis Cosby, Peet Kock, Willie Hilliard, Clarence, John Ernest and Harvey Kelly.

A delightful birthday party was given Wednesday afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock by the Rev. and Mrs. C. K. Pryde, the occasion being the 35th anniversary in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. K. Pryde.

Fathers, mothers and friends, numbering 40, were invited to participate of refreshments.

Among those who responded to the many invitations sent out were: Little Misses Virginia Engle, Mary Barnes, Bessele Johns, Belli Tiller, Mabel Harmon, Louise Johns, Marie Crowder, Celeste Johns, Virginia Miles, Gay Poldard, Ethel Foley, May Davis, Ruby Josephine, Nedra, Lena Dunakin, Ruthie, Baby, Mary, Richard, Lydia, Polk, Raymond, George, Wanda, Elwood, Harmon and Clinton Ford